

2007 ATS Presentations at ETS
Thursday, November 15
San Diego's Town and Country Conference and Resort Center
(500 Hotel Circle North, San Diego, CA, 92108),

8:30–9:10 a.m.

Jiri Moskala (Andrews University)

"I Gave Them Statutes That Were Not Good" (Ezekiel 20:25): The Sarcasm of God?

9:20–10:00 a.m.

Oliver Glanz (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Netherlands)

Facing the Longing for Faithfulness in the Post-Modern World: Giving the Relativity of Reason a Place in the Conception of Obedience

10:10–10:50 a.m.

Richard M. Davidson (Andrews University)

Which Torah Laws Should Gentile Christians Obey? The Relationship Between Leviticus 17-18 and Acts 15

11:00–11:40 a.m.

Kenneth Mulzac (Andrews University)

Figs Anyone!

2:10–2:50 p.m.

Felix Cortex (Andrews University)

"See That You Do Not Refuse the One Who Is Speaking": Obedience, Grace, and the Impossibility of Second Repentance in the Letter to the Hebrews

3:00–3:40 p.m.

Leslie Pollard (Loma Linda University)

Division and Differentiation in the Apocalypse: Obedience as Non-Conformity

3:50–4:30 p.m.

Grenville Kent (Wesley Theological College, Australia)

"Better Than Sacrifice"

4:40–5:20 p.m.

Alexander Bolotnikov (Hebrew Union College, Ohio)

Levitical Feasts Keeping in Christianity: Legalism or New Christian Experience?